

live another second without The Films of Harvey Keitel, the ultimate, ball-breakin' ode to American cinema's last true tough guy. From his early stage efforts to even his appearance on Saturday Night Live, this rough-edged, but nevertheless essential, guide to all that is Harvey won't disappoint loyal fans. Forget about the cover stories on Keitel in prissy magazines like Esquire—get this instead. —GA

HILLARY UNLEASHED

Published by Sharon Chandler (P.O. Box 6133, Clearwater, FL 34618, $4 ppd.) Reading this 'zine in the laundromat, I found its contents just about as interesting as watching the clothes tumble around in the dryer. While the writers raise pertinent questions regarding H.C.'s crusade for health-care reform, their analysis lost my attention. And many of their notable Hillary quotes I'd already read in Newsweek. The only re-

umlaut

Issue Eight 100 cents

UMLAUT

Edited by Brian Lew (Prozac Publications, 3084 22nd St., San Francisco, CA 94110, $10 for 6 issues ppd.) Ever since 'zines were co-opted by the mainstream (with all the recent superficial

music

HATING BRENDA

Performed by Rump (Caroline Records) Rump's album is doomed from the start, primarily because it smacks of novelty. While not exactly a Weird Al Yankovich record, the well-produced, various-genre tracks from this band (primarily Ben Is Dead / I Hate Brenda Newsletter core editors Darby, Kerin and Tom Grimley) are submerged in distracting campiness (i.e., skewering ultra-mega-bitch Shannen Doherty). "#1 Alternative College Radio

IN ON THE KILLTAKER

Performed by Fugazi (Dischord Records) Fugazi is the only band that I feel comfortable using the word passionate to describe. They've always played like they mean it, and their latest album, In on the Killtaker, is no exception. It is, arguably, the best album to come out this year. With themes ranging from film director John Cassavettes to recently deceased friends, this album offers the listener intellect, power and, yes, even passion for a reasonable eight bucks. Listen in on this killer album. —NC

Hillary Unleashed!

Spring 1993

$4.00 Dollars

OUCH!

Jeffrey Dahmer on the First Lady! Finally...An Interview you can sink your teeth into! Interview on Page 9

INSIDE:

Where's Willie? Hate Mail Mean Pranks The Day The Circus Came To Town

NOW

deemable portion of this publication is the Q & A with serial killers Jeffrey Dahmer and Aileen Wuornos, who has retained her wit, even on Death Row. Perhaps she should start her own 'zine. —NC any media-savvy critics, pay attention. The next 'zine you're about to discover is Umlaut. And you're going to describe it as "The Partridge Family meets Nirvana of magazines!" or something lame like that. Got it? But until then, FT readers can get a

To the editors of Ben is Dead: Prepare to have your RUMP roasted.

