2nd Battle of Lexington – Parker's Revenge Commemoration on Saturday, April 19, 2008 at 10:15 am at the site of Parker's Revenge near Minute Man National Historical Park Visitors Center just off of Rte. 2A in Lexington, MA. Free. This event commemorates the sacrifices made by the Lexington Minute Men when they counter-attacked the British Regulars on the afternoon of April 19, 1775. The event will include a wreath laying ceremony and musket salutes. For more information call 978-407-5718 <http://www.lexingtonminutemen.com/>. Wheelchair accessible (Sponsored by the Lexington Minute Men)

Prior to the above event the Minute Men will gather at the Lexington Common at approx. 8:30 am to re-enact the second call to arms from Captain Parker with additional dialogue from Reverend Jonas Clarke. Upon conclusion of this scripted event, the Minute Men will march the same route taken by the original patriot's to avenge their fallen comrades at the Parker's Revenge site.
